NOTES AND QUERIES.

ENFORCE THE LAW.

Enforcement of law prevents the breach of law. Law that is loosely administered is constantly broken. Law that is strictly enforced is less likely to be violated. If our laws against drunkenness and theft and the whole concatenation of crimes of which the Civil Code takes cognizance, were enforced to the fullest extent of their heaviest penalty, there would be fewer occasions for enforcement. Of course, socially scientific philosophers would lift up their voices against the austerity of police officers and the severity of judges. Let them, and all concerned, thoughtfully ponder over this axiom: There are some precepts which, if acted up to, are spared the necessity of much disagreeable practice.

PROGRESSIVE GOVERNMENT.

About a week ago Junius, in the P. C. A., had something to say about the credulity of the editor of the Gazette and the progressiveness of the Government. A man who is willing to stand up and declare that "the present Government is a progressive one," ought not, for consistency sake, to caution another to "restrain credulity and imagination." Junius himself must have a very active imagination or be extremely credulous, to say that our Government is "progressive;" or we must have very defective vision, for we cannot see the marks and evidences of progressiveness. Will Junius have the goodness to specify and point them out for our enlightenment and for the enlightenment of the general public? We are not so blind that we will not see, nor so stubborn that we cannot be convinced. Just show us the facts.

HUMANITY.

We are told that amongst those South Sea Islanders who are going back to their homes, a number are buying firearms. They are doing this at the instigation of a chief amongst them who hopes by their aid to recover his lost lands. Ought the Government to permit this?

THE RECIPROCITY TREATY

Will, in all probability, be postponed over this session which will give us another year of its benefits. When it is considered we ought to have its advantages extended so as to make it complete reciprocity between the two nations. This, we believe, would make it satisfactory to every party in the United States, and would secure its safety. Why, then, do our rulers not propose this?

THE TRUTH TOLD.

We have received a copy of a declaration made and signed by 106 German residents of these islands, successfully refuting certain statements in the Daily Review of August 31st of this year, concerning the labor traffic in these islands, which is there designated "trade in human flesh." This with a translation has been forwarded to every Consular Agent for this Kingdom from the Department of Foreign Affairs.

SHIPPING NOTES.

J. D. Spreckels leaves at 9 A.M. The whaling bark Sea Breeze was off port yesterday, and sent ashore for a first officer who had been shipped here. She made the port 17 days from San Francisco, and will leave to-day for the West on a cruise for sperm whales; next season she will go North.

The Claus Spreckels has had all necessary repairs, and will load to-day for Coquimbó. She will sail about the end of the first week in January, when we shall all regret to lose the genial society of Captain Cousins.

The Waiehu brought 500 packages of sugar from Molokai yesterday.

The C. R. Bishop, from Bremen, passed Lizard Point, south of England, on the 18th of November, bound for Honolulu.

The Loch Lee has hauled up to the wharf, and is now discharging coal for Wilder & Co.

DECEMBER 27.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

Geo. Patterson and Keahialoa, disturbing the quiet of the night, each forfeited a bail of $12. Palaulalo and Peniamina, same offence, each fined $5 and costs $2.50. Anakalea, assault and battery, remanded to the 28th. Iokia, heedless driving, remanded to the 28th. 4 drunks forfeited a bail of $6 each. 1 drunk fined $5 and costs $1. Kanakaole, (w.) deserting husband, settled out of court.

CIVIL CALENDAR.

Lee Sing vs. Kaiwinui, action of trespass, damages $100. Judgment for plaintiff, damages allowed $25 and costs $5.40.

Bishop & Co. vs. Chung Faa, action on promissory note for $170. 15 with interest. Judgment for plaintiff for full amount claimed and costs $3.

Bishop & Co. vs. Chung Faa, action on promissory note for $160 with interest. Judgment for plaintiff for full amount claimed and costs $3.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Correspondence is solicited on the topics of the day, or what may become so. We reserve the right to excise purely personal matter. We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents.—Ed.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Can there be anything done to prevent cruelty to horses? Why don't people form a society and take action in the matter? Bad shoeing is the cause of lameness in three cases out of four in this town. A horse with bad feet should be prevented from work. Some ruthless villain cut a small stallion about the body, and he is the worst case I ever saw. Why don't the police try and do something in the matter? I like the action you are taking in the matter of cruelty to animals. Horses with sound hoofs should never be shod until they wear too near the blood, and then by a good shoeer only.

LOCAL AND GENERAL ITEMS.

A most enjoyable party was held at the Long Branch Baths on Tuesday night.

CAPT. MORRILL made a seizure of 36 tins of opium in the fore-peak of the Klikitat at 1 P.M. yesterday.

The celebrated Jumbo is prepared to receive contributions of quarters and 5 cent pieces at C. Brewer & Co.'s.

The Jury recommended the widening of Merchant street to Kaahumanu street 42 feet, mainly on the mauka side.

It seems strange that Mr. H. A. P. Carter should have received no official intimation of the Coronation while he was in Europe. He didn't even receive an invitation.

We were yesterday shown a package addressed to "The Proprietor, Publisher, or Manager of the Hawaiian Kingdom." It is well known that the country is guided by a proprietor, publisher and manager, but it is news to hear that he is the proprietor, publisher or manager of the State.

We are informed that some drunk and disorderly hoodlums made night hideous on Emma street on Tuesday, from dark till after 11 P.M. They passed the corner where the policeman was or ought to have been but no notice was taken of them. A fearful row also occurred at 10 o'clock on the same night higher up the street, but no police interfered.

Tues afternoon, at 3 o'clock, there will be a business meeting at Fort street Church, at which a full attendance is requested. In the evening a literary and musical entertainment, commencing at 7:30, to which all are cordially invited, will be held, in which the following ladies and gentlemen will take part: Miss Prescott, Mrs. W. Hopper, Mrs. E. P. Adams, Mrs. Hanford, Mrs. W. Peterson, Mrs. A. F. Judd, Mr. Cruzan and Prof. Yarnley. A coffee social will be held afterwards. Mrs. W. W. Hall will preside.

Wanted a suite of rooms, with board, in a private family, for lady and gentleman, in a respectable neighborhood. Address J. E. Wiseman, Real Estate Broker. 283 1w

GONE TO HIS REWARD.

Rev. Dr. M. Mellis died at his son's residence, corner of Salmon and Ninth streets, this morning at 7:30 o'clock. He was one of the most learned men upon the Pacific Coast. He was born in Prague, Bohemia, 73 years ago to-day. He was a graduate of the University of Pesth, a doctor of philosophy, and spoke the Latin, Greek, Hebrew, French, German, Arabic and Hungarian languages, and was well versed in Sanscrit. He received from the hand of Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria a medal for services rendered during the war of '66. Rev. Dr. Mellis, during his long and useful life, has established a number of charitable institutions, among them being a college for teaching professions to young men, still in existence and now self sustaining. He has been in this country but three years, the other portion of his life having been passed in his native land, in the execution of good and noble works. By his death the world loses a man who was never happier than when engaged in generous acts. Dr. Mellis was a rabbi of the Jewish synagogue Ahavi Sholem in this city but refused to receive any compensation for his services.—Evening (Portland) Telegram, Dec. 5.

NOTICE

OWING TO THE UNUSUAL DEMAND THAT WE HAVE HAD FOR REED & BARTON'S

ELEGANT SILVER PLATED WARE

And, notwithstanding the fact that we opened a few weeks ago, the largest we have ever received, we find ourselves quite out of many articles.

We have decided to make a liberal discount to all purchasers of these goods and of our until after the Christmas Holidays.

GORHAM SILVER WARE

We are obliged to order a new supply immediately, in order to be prepared for those weddings which are to come off soon.

We would here remark that we often have occasion to send special orders for Plated or Silver Ware, sometimes to be marked with a letter or monogram, which is done in beautiful style.

Any one wishing sets of Forks and Spoons, or anything else, marked or not marked, would do well to leave the order as soon as possible.

Call and examine these beautiful goods before they are all gone. You all know they are to be found at
